The Genealogy of John and Mary Bennett And Their Descendants.

John and Mary Ann (Brown) Bennett who came from England to America in May and June, 1830, were the parents of nine children; Eliza, Mary Ann, Isabell, Harriett, Keziah, Elijah James, Elizabeth, and William Henry.

Isabell, Elijah, James, and William Henry, died quite young.

Eliza Bennett who was born in England and came to America with her parents, was lost, or she ran away, soon after they landed, and they never could locate her, all the word ever heard about her, was in a letter written by his brother Thomas, as follows.

An Old Letter Written June 25, 1857.
Thomas Bennett of Ipswich, England, to his Brother, John of Howell, Michigan,

Ipswich, Eng, June 25, 1857,

Dear Brother;—With much pleasure I now take up my pen to answer your kind letter which I received in June, and hope it may meet you all quite well, as it leaves us at this time. Thank God for it,

Dear Brother; I will now inform you that I came home to England in the month of October, 1840. My last stay was at Vandemans Land, which I left for England in April 1840. We had a very slow passage but we call'd at Ryo, in the South of America, and we stoped there a week. We went a long way 'round to come on smother seas. We supposed we came about 20,000 miles from the place we started from in Eng.

That farm at Vandemans Land; a thousand acres for Sixty Pounds a year, sixty helpers upon thirds. I cleared my rent by fencing and building, I sent One Hundred Pounds home, for my wife and family come to me, she being very ill at the time, could not come, and the others had no wish to come without her.

Our harvest there began in January and last until March, and was generally fine all the time. The blacks were very bad there, when I first went: they set fire to our huts, and killed all they could.

When I first came home I bought at Gardens Bramford, about three acres of land, three cottages and a dwelling house, belonging to one Allen, joining the Angell Garden and running up by the Bullen Lane;

But I found out, after a time, it would not answer my purpose, and having a good offer, I sold it for 40 pounds more than I gave for it. Then I came to live at Ipswich, where I still remain, and am living upon what I have coming in weekly. ***

Your Brother James is still living at Bramford, I have the same gardens he had when you left, he has give up laborers work, he deals in hay, and makes a few hurdles, and jobs about with a horse and cart. His family have been a great deal of trouble to him. his oldest son, James, went to London, and after a time took a Cook Shop and for a little time was doing well, until he got too fond of drink, and by that, soon got in debt, and being seized and had not sufficient to pay, was thrown into jail, and after his time was out he let himself to a merchant ship, as cook, that was sailing for the West Indias. leaving a wife and four children, he wrote home but once, and after four year we have heard no more of him.

The next son, Charles, married and went to Australia, where he sunk wells for people, and in sinking one got one leg broken.

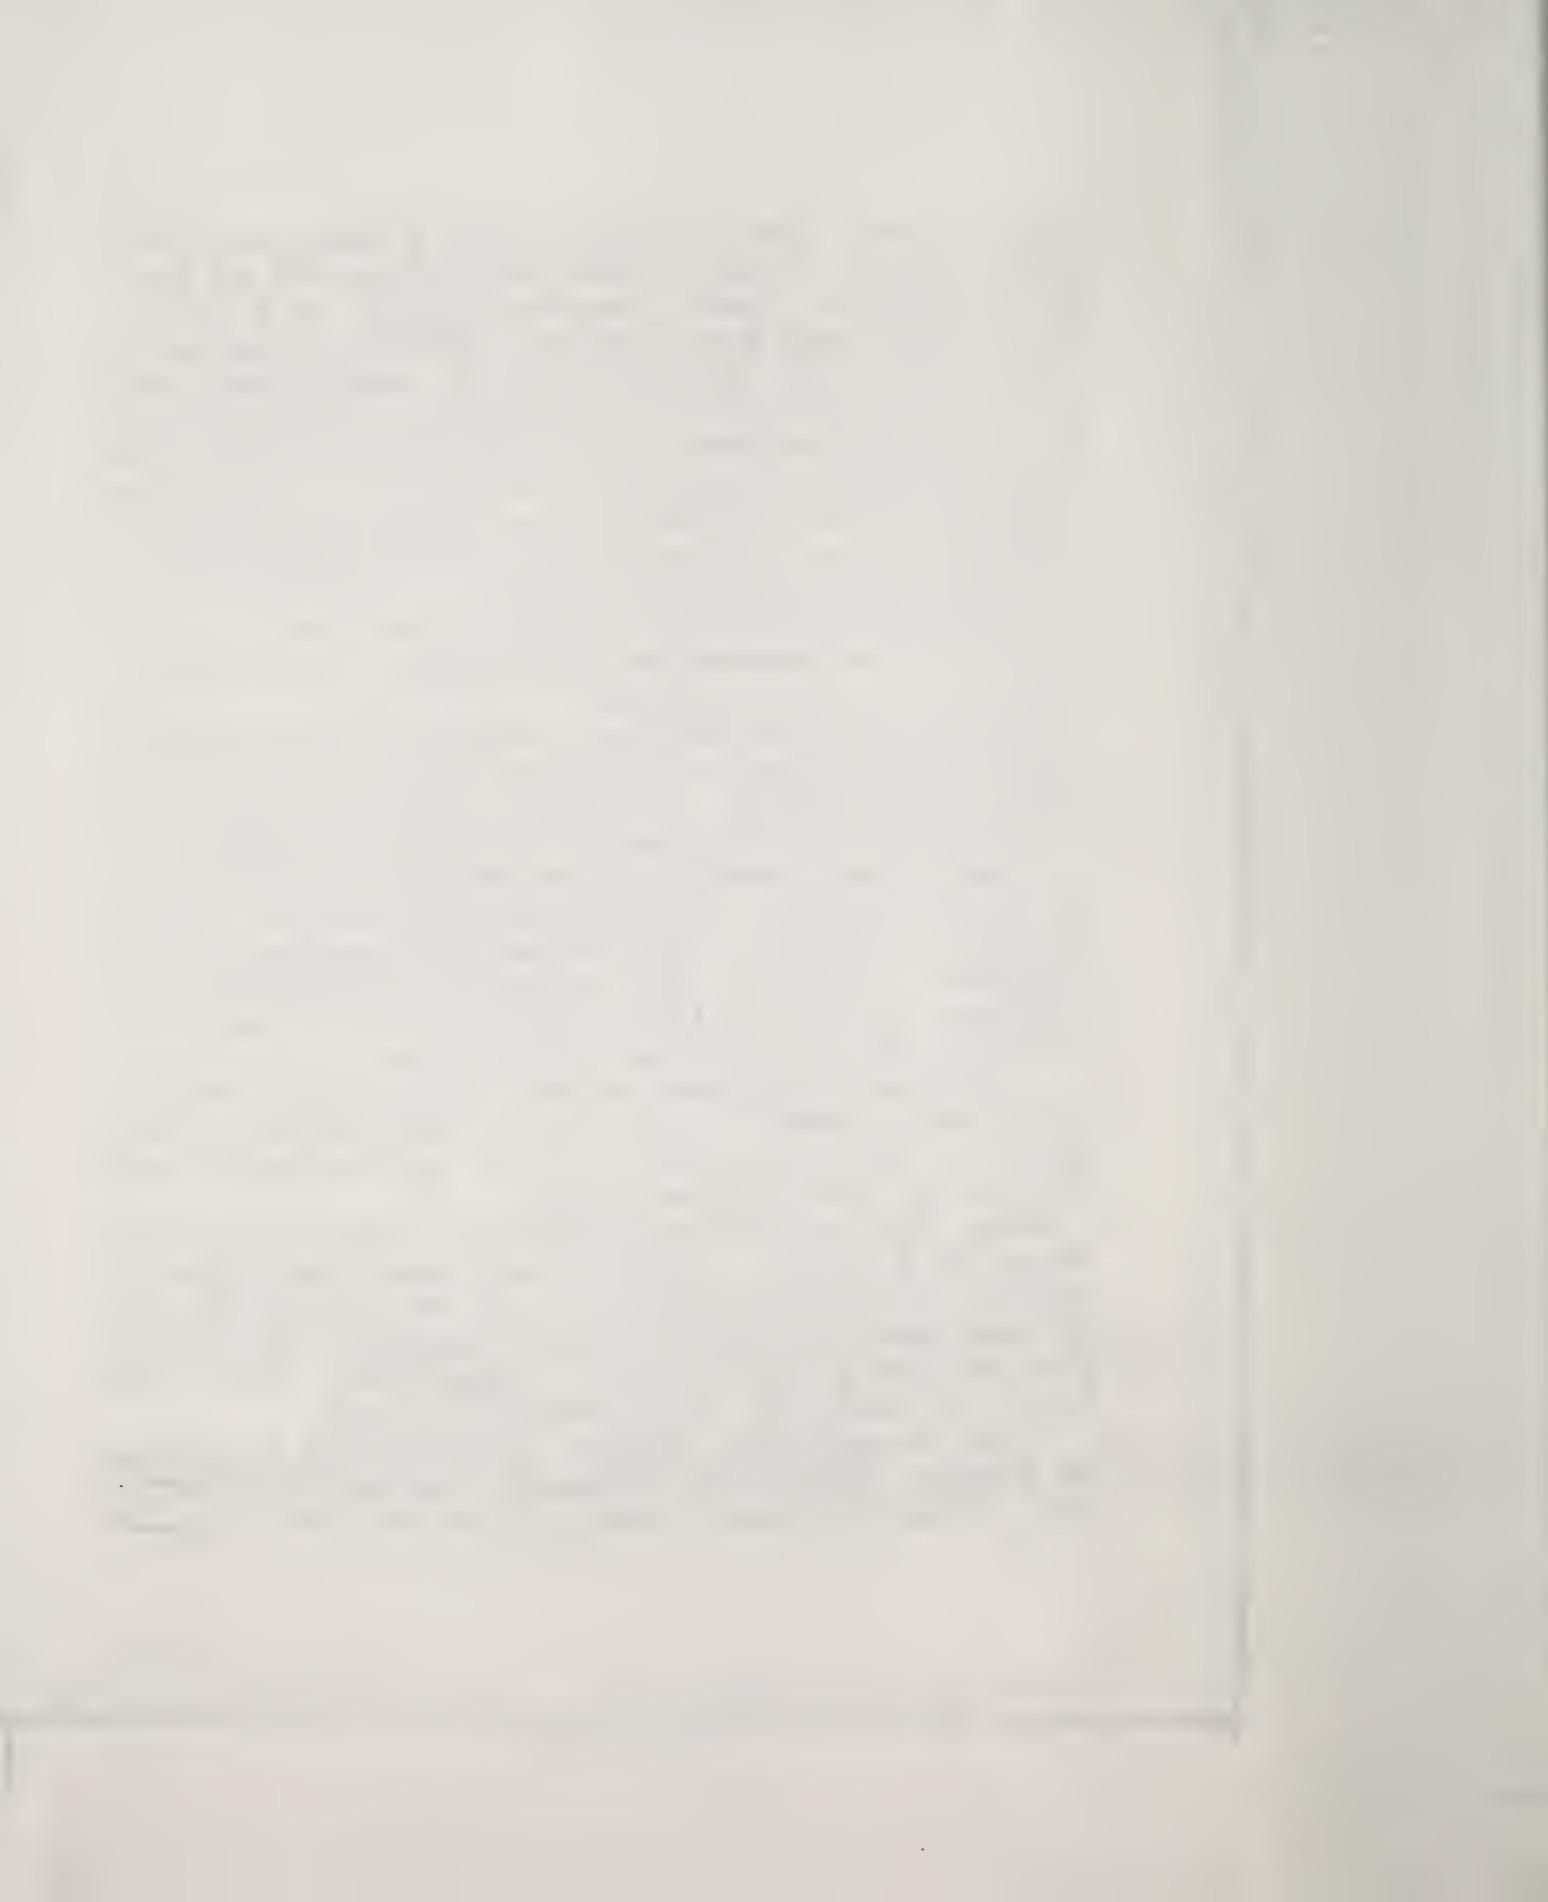

His youngest son, George, married, went to London and got his sister, Betsy, and went to Australia to his brother Charles, but after a time he went away and haven't been heard of since, he had one child.

Betsey, the eldest daughter, married a man by the name of Lambert, of Burchall, they went to live at London and after a time he died leaving her with 7 children, Hannah, the youngest married a man by the name of Abbott from Bursthall, he is keeper at Bransford Hall. They have two children.

Your own daughter, Eliza, wrote home to Bramford, twice before I came home, they wrote to her once and got no answer, so they wrote no more and have never heard of her since.

Your Wife's brother, John Brown, live in the same house at Flouton. Charles have been dead eight or nine years, leaving a widow and seven children, all of them married and some have families, the widow lives in Cox Lane, Ipswich, James lives in the old house at Bramford, and Edward is dead,

Your sister, Mrs, Taylor, and husband are living at Elmset. Your sister Hannah, that my wife's brother, John Stevenson, married, has been left a widow two years. she is now living with her grandson at Willersham. My wife's sister, Charlotte Sewell, has been dead about a year. her husband is stil living at Bilveston, where she died.

My daughter, Sophia and her husband is still living at Washbrook, they have a family of six, two of them are married, three are living in Ipswich, and one has been gone to Australia about four years,

My son Samuell, married and lived in London for a time, his wife died and he sailed with a family for America two years ago. Henry, my youngest son, is marriec and is in a Cook Shop in London. he has had six children. three of them are dead. the others were here last Spring and were all quite Well.

Laborers wages here are from nine to twelve shillings a week. Good wheat is 26 shillings per comb. Flour is two shillings and nine pence per stone. Barley is from 25 to 30 shillings per comb. Malt is ten shillings a bushel, Peas and beans sell very high.

The railroads run all over England now. the fare from Ipswich to London and back is six shillings,

Dear Brother, I have sent you all the news I can think of at this time, Wishing you every blessing,

With both our love to you all, we remain,

Your affectionate brother and sister,

Thomas and Mary Bennett,

Sorrow

Tho sweetly blows the early rose,
And every grove an Eden;
A troubled heart can take no part,
When with gloom and sorrow laden.

Tho sweetly sing the sbirds of spring,
Of welcome day and morrow;
We cannot hear a word of cheer,
When paralized with sorrow.

Our Trip to the Holy Land

It is called the Mediteranean Cruise. sponsored by James Boring of N. Y. City. Eight of us from Howell, Mich. started on this wonderful trip from New York on March 8th 1930,

"All ashore that's going ashore" comes the cry-the gang plank rises, the whistle shrieks and our great ship, the S.S. Adriatic. slips out of dock.

After a week of delightful weather, we came to the Madeira Islands. then soon we were passing thru the straits of Gibralter into the Mediteranean Sea

After visiting the great fortress and driving thru the streets crowded with strange people we took the ship again and crossed over to the north of Africa. stopping at Algiers where a hundred years ago the pirates ruled the seas, a strange oriental city, where the Arabs live.

Leaving this city we sailed across to Monaceo and Monte Carlo. Naples, Athens and Constantinople. Busses and Autos were waiting for us at each stop and we were taken to different places of interest, the guides explaining as we went.

We then sailed along the coast among islands of Patmos, Rhodes and Cyprus until we landed at Heifa, a port of the Holy Land near Mt. Carmel.

We visited Nazareth where Jesus grew to manhood, then down to the sea of Galilee where He performed His most noted Miracles. On the second day we drove to Jerusalem, visiting many, many places mentioned in the Bible, on the way.

On arriving at Jerusalem we spent two days sightseeing about the city, one day taking a trip down to Jericho and the Dead Sea, then back to Jerusalem for the night.

The next day we took a special train for Egypt, we crossed the Sinai Desert where the children of Israel escaped from Egypt, over the same road Gen. Allenby built during our last great war.

Cairo, the largest city in Africa was very gay with lovely gardens and palaces. We visited the Pyramids and Sphinx, riding on camels.

From Cairo we took the train again for Alexandria where our good ship, the Adriatic, was waiting for us. After retracing our way up the coast of Italy we visited Rome. Then after a week spent seeing the wonderful sights of England we sailed for home, delighted with our trip.

Carrie Drew, was born Sep. 5, 1871. she died July 1, 1873. The following poem by her father on the death of—CARRIE—

The hour of six has just been tolled
 Too early in the day:
 Our painless child is growing cold,
 The spirit's flown away,

 The humming bird may now review
 Our posies fresh and gay;
 Yet cannot wake delight in you
 Sweet Carrie, turned to clay,

 The field it wears a diminish green,
 The sun's obscured today:
 The mother bears a tearful mien,
 Her charge has flown away.

 Tho one by one they softly leave,
 For painless isles away:
 Why parents weep or loved ones grieve,
 Or wish them longer stay,

 A comfort sweet; we yet shall meet,
 And oh, the blissful day;
 Our lost to greet on crystal street,
 Nor farewell there to say

Some Early History of the Love Family who settled in Marion in 1836,
furnished by Thomas Love

It showed the commencement of the "English Settlement" as it was called.

Henry Love and his family arrived in New York City, from England, on the 10th of June 1836. and immediately began a journey westward intending to settle in Illinois.

He went to Albany by steamer then continued to Rochester N. Y. by the Erie Canal. At this city he left his family and takeing only his son Thomas kept on by way of the Canal to Buffalo, then by a lake steamer to Detroit

In Detroit they met some English friends who had already bought land in Marion. They came together and Henry purchased land South of Cedar lake.

While in Detroit the party purchased 4 yoke of oxen, 2 wagons provisions plows axes, etc. then drove to Cedar lake up the Grand River road which ran straight out from Detroit as far as eye could reach. Over this route they came until they reached Ore Creek — now Brighton. here they turned west and arrived at the homes of the Hoaglands and Bennetts, in the present township of Hamburg, where they remained for a Sundays rest. Here some of the party stayed, but the remainder, consisting of Henry G. Love and son Thomas and Nephew, William Love with others, continued their journey Monday July 4th, and before night reached Cedar lake, east side, where they camped.

Later, Henry Love bought 320 acres valued at 960 dollars, in section 33, They cut logs to build houses. and the Loves soon had a house built and the family came on from Rochester. a crop of wheat was sown that fall on 5 acres cleared, but sown so late it was a failure.

About the first thing done they cut a large tree and made a huge canoe and put it on Cedar lake. This was the first boat put on the lake by white men. It proved a great blessing as one said, there was an abundance of fish in Michigan waters but small amount of pork in the barrel at home.

During the winter of 1836-7 the English settlers cleared about 15 more acres with their 4 yoke of oxen and the whole was sown to wheat and they had a good crop. It was difficult to obtain the most common articles of food; Flour was $15.00 a barrel and corn $1.75 per bushel. They got their provisions from Dexter or Ann Arbor.

William Love came from Berkshire Co. England in 1834, and after two years residence in N. Y. his brother Elisha came from England. They joined the English settlers of Marion in 1836.

In 1839 William Love married Miss Keziah Bennett, a daughter of John Bennett. There are many descendants from this union.

Thomas Love was born Jan. 4, 1813, in the Parish of Mortimer, Berkshire Co. England. He came here with his father, Henry G. Love, in May 1836, and later settled on a half section of land on the south line of the town of Marion.

Thomas remained with his father until 1839, when he married Lavina Basing, who came from the same place as the Loves in 1838. He was a carpenter and worked on the house of Townsend Drew, where Mary Lyons now lives. The first frame house in Marion. It is a matter of history that he made window sash for the first school house in Detroit.

Their log house has long since given place to a good frame residence, where they and their seven children enjoyed their pleasant home of English Settlement.

Thus we have briefly traced the settlement of a small company of English people — men and women of sterling worth — who to the present time have honored them selves and the land of their adoption.

ELIZABETH BENNETT. youngest daughter of John and Mary A. Bennett and the last of the Bennett family. was born in Canada on October 2nd 1831. She came to Michigan with her parent where she was married Aug. 15. 1851, to Henry Batram, who died April 10, 1887. age 63 years. They had two children, William, born Jnly 20, 1852 and died June 11, 1876.

Mary Batram was born Nov. 1, 1857. she was married Nov. 14, 1878. to Charles Marlow, who died June 26, 1917. they had one child Louise, who married Arthur Drew. see page 22.

Mary Marlow died May 25, 1920. her mother, Elizabeth Batram, died Jan. 19, 1918. see Vol.1.

The Batram farm home where they lived for many years, they sold to the Michigan State Sanitarium, and bought another place near by.

He served in the world war, where he was "gassed" which effected his lungs and brought on tuberculosis. from which he died about 1925. he was buried in the Olena cemetary.

The Moore's were rather of a pioneer nature; always wanting to move to new parts.

Father was a very conscientious, hard working man. He was a carpenter and put up a number of buildings, both here and in Michigan. Their house near Pinckney Mich. built in 1849, is still standing and in good condition.

Tho small of stature, few could outdo him at wielding the broadax, or swinging the grain cradle. He supported a large family under adverse circumstances. Three sons, William, Edward, and Samuel served in the civil war, See vol. I.

Of the descendants of Wm and Harriet Moore, 341 were born, and 310 are living at this date. a peroid of 96 years since they were married.

Of their family of ten, only 3 are now living, Frank, Lizzie, and myself. William is buried in Mt. Hope cemetary, Kansas city, Kan. Harriet in Crystal Lake cemetary, Corvallis, Ore. Mary in the Central City, Neb. cemetary. Samuel in the Hastings, Iowa, cemetary. Elcia and Charlie in the Carman, Ill. cemetary.

Truly;—

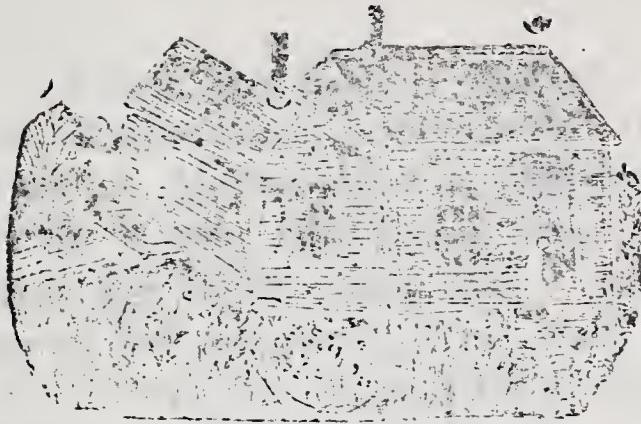

"Their graves are scattered far and wide".

There were father, mother, brothers;
Sisters, and sweethearts dear,
We'll never forget the loved ones,
That lived and parted here.

A Tribe of Pawnees were in camp near their claim. They often came to their "sod house" beg-time, walk in and seat himself at the table and proceede to help himself without invite or urge.

Nettie was a little girl then and at such times

she would run and crawl to the back side of the top "bunk" and hide until he was gone.

They often talked about trading ponies for her, sometimes they would bring her beads, beadwork and trinkets.

Of Harlow Reed's family of ten children, 5 are living at this date, May 1934. Father and Mother Reed are buried at Central City, Neb. Will and Clarence at Laramie, Wyo. Henry at Scottsbluffs, Neb. Gus and Gene at Crawford, Neb.

THANKS

We wish to Thank all who contributed genealogical data, or helped in any way with this little book. The credit goes to you; without your help we would have been unable to collect the necessary data.

Some wrote quite freely, while others seemed reluctant to give the full records, so if some are missing, it's because we failed to get it.

Mistakes you will find a-plenty; but we hope you will appreciate the efforts made to keep in memory the loved ones of our youth, who are leaving us one by one; and to acquaint you with their descendants, which are increasing in number each year. At my age I can't expect to print another volume, but if you will all send me data as it occurs, I will typewrite it in shape, and leave it for someone else to carry on.

We thank you,
